Experience the breathtaking natural phenomenon of the northern lights in Yellowknife, coupled with stunning views in the Canadian Rockies on this 13-day winter adventure.

Highlights

- Embark on an exciting dog sled ride through Yellowknife's wooded trails
- Explore Banff National Park and the beauty of the Rockies by snowshoe
- Venture to the top of Sulphur Mountain on the Banff Gondola
- Overnight at the iconic Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise
- Encounter frozen waterfalls & ice caves on the Maligne Canyon Ice Walk

Yellowknife is one of the best places in the world to view the aurora borealis, also known as the Northern Lights. Aurora Village is a place for visitors to experience the magic and wonder of the North. Commence your package in Yellowknife with three nights Aurora viewing in Teepee Village and watch in comfort as the brilliantly beautiful Aurora dance across the northern sky. While in Yellowknife, you will also experience a thrilling dogsledding ride on a traditional sled for an exciting journey through the wooded trails surrounding Aurora Village.

Fly from Yellowknife to Edmonton, where you will spend one night in the vibrant urban centre in the heart of the wilderness. You will then travel west towards the mountain resort town of Jasper. Spending three nights in Jasper taking in a magical ice walk through Maligne Canyon in Jasper and an afternoon wildlife discovery tour. Head on down the Icefields Parkway to Lake Louise, where you will spend a night soaking up the serenity of the winter landscape from the iconic Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise. Enjoy a sleigh ride in Lake Louise before continuing to the town at the heart of the Canadian Rockies, Banff.

Spend four nights in the alpine town of Banff, where there is a wealth of winter activities to explore! Keep your eyes peeled for deer, elk, and bighorn sheep on a morning tour of Banff, enjoy an afternoon snowshoe to Paint Pots and take part in an unforgettable experience on an ice walk to Johnston Canyon.

After spending time in Banff and exploring all that the winter wonderland has to offer, you travel on to Calgary where your journey ends.

ITINERARY

Day

Yellowknife

Arrive at Yellowknife Airport and transfer to your hotel. After getting settled and fitted into your winter weather clothes , depart with your guide to Aurora Village for your first evening of Aurora viewing! Warm up in a picturesque teepee glowing in the night, wood fire stove burning and choose from a delicious selection of hot beverages. Situated around the village on high ground and away from the lights of the city, the view of the Aurora is unsurpassed. Restaurant services are also available at Aurora Village. After your viewing, you are transferred back to your Yellowknife hotel.

Overnight stay in Yellowknife at The Explorer Hotel in a Superior room.

Day 2 - 3 Yellowknife

Begin your northern adventure! Embark on one of several excursions over the next two days that highlight the remote landscape and fascinating ancient and modern cultures that are the heart of the local communities.

Your package includes a tour of Yellowknife. Your guided experience reveals the city's early beginnings where the "streets were paved with gold", to its deeply rooted Indigenous culture. See the Legislative Assembly, Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Center, as well as a scenic drive through downtown, Old Town, and onto a drive on the frozen Ice Road (ice permitting).

Embark on an exciting dog sledding ride through the wooded trails surrounding Aurora Village. Spend the afternoon at Aurora Village enjoying the most popular daytime activity. Your dog team ride will take you on a traditional sled for an exciting ride through the wooded trails surrounding Aurora Village. Then enjoy the Teepee Village by day. You will find another impression of Aurora Village, different from night ambience.

Every night is capped off with a dazzling Aurora Viewing experience, having the option to include heated seating on one of their evening sessions.

Day 9 Lake Louise Banff

The morning is at leisure to explore Lake Louise, then depart Lake Louise and follow the Bow River to Banff. The Bow River was named for the bows that were made by the First Nations People from the shrubs that they collected. Along the way pass by two of the more outstanding landmarks in the region, Castle Mountain (2750m/9022ft) and Mount Temple (3523m/11,558ft).

Overnight in Banff at The Mount Royal Hotel

Day 10 Banff

This morning, build a connection to the World Heritage Site as you visit Banff's landmarks and view wildlife in their natural winter habitat. On the comfortable coach, hear how the history of the Bow Valley changed when three railway workers rediscovered a hidden treasure. See and learn about wildlife behaviour, habitat, and their winter survival adaptations. This is Banff's best tour for viewing wildlife which are seen on 95% of the tours.

See the Banff Gondola's new experience Nightrise, as the summit transforms into an immersive evening for the senses. Vibrant lighting, multimedia effects, video projections and music bring the summit to life in a new and unexpected way. At the top, you'll get the chance to explore the many levels of the summit building, as well as the outdoor terraces, discovering mysterious fleeting wonders. This tour includes return transportation back to your hotel.

Day 11 Banff

The Paint Pots is a great introduction to snowshoeing that provides insight into the fur trade and its impact on Western Canada. Along the way, hear stories of Banff's indigenous people, explorers and fur traders who lived in and traveled through the Rockies. Snowshoe on an easy trail through Vermilion River Valley to the Paint Pots, a cultural treasure within the National Parks. This trip is on mostly flat terrain and you will have the chance to search for snowshoe hare, moose and wolf tracks while exploring. Finally, near the Paint Pots you'll be rewarded with a unique Canadian treat - maple taffy!

Day 12 Banff

Johnston Canyon is one of the most popular attractions in Banff National Park and a tour not to be missed! Upon arriving at Johnston canyon, you are provided with ice-cleats that make walking on the sometimes icy trail, simple. Hike on a network of steel walkways built into the canyon walls with airy views of the gorge below. You will get to wander through a natural cave to gaze down at the flowing waters of the lower falls. Continue onto the awe-inducing upper falls — a glittering tower of ice that rises 30 metres above your head. These gigantic pillars of ice are the tour highlight and ice climbers can often be seen scaling the frozen columns.

Day 13 Banff Calgary

Today it's time to say goodbye to the fresh mountain air and majestic sights of the Rockies. Following the Trans Canada Highway to Calgary, you'll travel back through the Great Central Plains that roll to the east for 2,000 kilometres and extend south as far as Mexico. In the late 1700's, over 60 million buffalo roamed these plains but by 1900 it took concerted efforts and the establishment of national parks to keep them safe from extinction. Arrive at Calgary Airport in time to connect with your flight.
