ITINERARY

Day 1

Oviedo - Viveiro

Your adventure commences in Oviedo Renfe Station, where travellers are invited to gather at the Renfe station between 12:00 and 14:00 hours for baggage collection. At 16:30, a guided tour of Oviedo awaits, showcasing its stunning Cathedral and the Holy Chamber. Following this cultural immersion, guests will board The Costa Verde Express, where they will be greeted with a warm welcome from the crew. As the train departs for Galicia, a delightful catering dinner will be served on board. The evening is spent travelling towards Viveiro, ensuring a restful night in luxurious accommodations.

Dinner

Day 2

Viveiro

Upon your early arrival in Viveiro, guests will indulge in a delicious breakfast buffet. Post-breakfast, a coach transfer is available for pilgrims wishing to embark on the first walking stage from Ferrol to Pontedeume, covering 26 kilometers. For those preferring a less strenuous option, a scenic coach ride to the northernmost point of the Iberian Peninsula, the Estaca de Bares cape, is offered, followed by visits to Bares Beach and O Barqueiro, with free time for lunch (at own expense). In the afternoon, visitors will return to the train, while walkers are picked up from Pontedeume to rejoin the group in Viveiro. The evening offers free time for dinner (at own expense) and a comfortable night on board in Viveiro.

Breakfast

Day 3

Viveiro Ortigueira

The journey continues as the train travels to Ortigueira during breakfast. From Ortigueira, pilgrims will be transported by coach to Pontedeume to start their second walking stage to Abegondo, a distance of 31 kilometers. Meanwhile, other guests will tour the Sanctuary of San Andrés de Teixido and the town of Cedeira, with ample free time for lunch (at own expense). In the afternoon, the train will collect visitors and pick up walkers in Abegondo, returning everyone to Ortigueira for an evening of leisure (dinner at own expense) and an overnight stay.

Breakfast

Day 4

Ortigueira Ferrol

As guests enjoy breakfast, the train makes its way to Ferrol. From here, pilgrims will commence the third walking stage from Abegondo to A Calle, covering 25 kilometers. Non-walking guests will head to A Coruña for a morning of exploration and free time for lunch. In the afternoon, the group reconvenes in Ferrol, and the day culminates with a delightful dinner at a traditional Pulpería, famed for its octopus dishes. The night is spent in Ferrol.

Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5

Ferrol Santiago de Compostela Oviedo

After a hearty breakfast on board, pilgrims will be transferred by coach to A Calle, where they will begin the fourth and final walking stage to Santiago de Compostela, a 27-kilometer trek. After arriving in Santiago, enjoy free time until the afternoon. Lunch will be at your own expense. Meanwhile, non-walking guests will travel directly from Ferrol to Santiago de Compostela by coach, enjoying free time upon arrival. In the late afternoon, both pilgrims and tourists will reunite in Ferrol. The evening features a catered dinner on board as the train departs for Oviedo, with an overnight journey back.

Breakfast, Dinner

Day 6

Oviedo

The train arrives early in Oviedo train station, where guests will enjoy a final breakfast on board. This marks the conclusion of the journey, with farewells to the crew and disembarkation by early morning - afternoon.
