Cruise

La Belle Epoque takes you on a gentle voyage of discovery through a region studded with traditions and history along the Burgundy Canal.

Highlights

- Visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Abbaye de Fontenay
- Private tasting of Chablis wines
- Visit to the Château de Commarin for a unique falconry display
- Private Champagne Tasting at the Alexandre Bonnet Champagne House
- Dine with the Baroness Segolene de Taisne at the magnificent Château de Ricey-Bas
- Excellent towpath for walking & biking

La Belle Epoque meanders along the Burgundy Canal with its undulating countryside, you will find that the towpath is always there for spot of walking or cycling.

La Belle Epoque was built in Netherlands in 1930 carrying timber from Burgundy to Paris. She was renovated and converted to a luxury hotel barge in 1995. She now cruises from Veneray-les-Laumes to Tanlay through the lovely Burgundy Canal.

This Hotel Barge can accommodate up to 12 passengers. It features 2 Junior Suites and 4 staterooms with en-suite facilities and a choice of twin or double beds, all with marble en-suite facilities, spacious salon/dining room and sun deck with spa pool. Your captain leads a friendly crew of six including a master chef, deck hand, tour guide and two hostesses.

Day

Montbard Ravières

Morning cruise with excellent towpath walking or cycling, passing the 18th century Forges de Buffon. Then after lunch you will be escorted to the exquisite UNESCO World Heritage Site of Abbaye de Fontenay founded by St Bernard in 1118. Representing a distinctive example of early Cistercian architecture and virtually intact, Fontenay allows an exceptional glimpse of Cistercian life and industry with its peaceful gardens, ponds and fascinating cloisters, dormitories and scriptorium. Return to the barge and cruise to Ravières. Dinner on board.

Day 4

Ravières Ancy-le-Franc

A truly unique day lies ahead. Following breakfast aboard head to Les Riceys, the only wine growing area of the Champagne region to have 3 Appellation d'Origine Contrôlées. Here visit the Maison Alexandre Bonnet for a private champagne tasting, a family owned Champagne house renowned for a stunning yearly harvest of Pinot Noir that leads to some utterly exquisite vintages. After you've tasted an array of champagnes we take a short drive to Château de Ricey-Bas; with its 12th century vaulted cellars and thousand year history it's the ideal location to appreciate the rolling vineyards and enjoy a glimpse of family life in a rural château. Here you will be greeted for a Champagne aperitif and a gourmet lunch with the Baroness herself, which you take in either the private salon or the atmospheric vaulted 13th century kitchen. You will spend the remainder of the afternoon strolling the beautiful gardens or exploring the regal château interiors. Upon your return to the barge you'll begin your cruise to Ancy-le-Franc, with plenty of opportunity to walk or cycle along the towpath... or sit on deck with another glass of bubbly! Dinner on board.
